Lévy based growth models

Juergen Schmiegel (Aarhus)

A class of star-shaped growth models based on Lévy bases is presented. The construction of the models allows for the calculation of arbitrary n-point correlations. As an application, the modeling of specific limiting shapes, asymmetric growth and cancer growth are discussed.